Ready, Set, THRIVE with OPEN!

Be ready to move in this high-energy movement session! We will incorporate various OPEN activities to explore ways to engage students in movement experiences, including in PE, the classroom, at recess, and through family engagement. This session will help physical educators promote physical literacy while maximizing student participation, engagement, empowerment, and leadership. Additionally, we will discuss Social Emotional Learning by being Safe, Responsible, and Respectful through movement opportunities! Topics will span a wide range of grade and interest levels, and all can be easily implemented immediately! This session is designed for a K-12 audience to engage all students and professionals to Believe in themselves and to #GoBeGreat each and every day!

Audience: ALL K-12 Educators & Leaders, and Physical Activity Champions
